The more the subject is aired, the worse becomes the stench that arises from the inquiry which is being made into the conduct of the home. The senate health committee held an informat and unofficial hearing this morning which brought out even more facts in connection with the already deplorable state of affairs which exist there and it developed the air the hearing that as late as Janpary I. Matthews complied a report in which he said that conditions in the state home were spiendid and that no girls in the state were lester provided for than those who were inmates of the home.
